

Citizen Soldier and the Trauma Studies Center of the Institute for Contemporary Psychotherapy

Present a

NATIONAL CONFERENCE

"When the War Comes Home: Soldiers and Civilians in Crisis"

Saturday, April 3, 2010, 9:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

University Settlement, 273 Bowery @ Houston St., New York City

(Subways: Broadway-Lafayette, Bleecker and Prince St. stations)

Registration: $15 (no one will be turned away)

(Advance reservation: www.citizen-soldier.org (click on "Donate"))

* * *

PROGRAM

WELCOME: Tod Ensign, Esq., Dir., Citizen Soldier

OPENING EXERCISE for each Breakout Group

(membership for each group assigned randomly)

KEYNOTE; OVERVIEW talk

John Waltz, Iraq and Afghan War veteran

Congressional candidate, Louisville, KY

BREAKOUT GROUP Discussion

FIRST PANEL: Voices of Soldiers, Veterans, and War Correspondents

* Conrad Cho, Iraq combat vet, student John Jay College, NYC

* Paul Woodhouse, Marine vet. Pres. John Jay Veterans Club, NYC

* Anu Bhagwati, former, Captain, Marine Corps, Servicewomen's Action Network, NYC

Navy Cmdr Mark Russell, (Ret) PhD, Seattle, WA

Aaron Glantz, author, two books on issues facing Iraq/Afghan veterans, two years as war correspondent in Iraq, San Francisco, CA

BREAKOUT GROUP Discussion

LUNCH (30 minutes, bring your own and/or sandwiches for sale)

* * *

SECOND PANEL: Understanding the Psychological Needs of Soldiers/Veterans

* Dr Peter Maves, PhD, understanding Acute Stress Disorder, Post Traumatic Stress Disorder, and Traumatic Brain Injury (TBI) Boulder, CO

*Dr. James Munroe, PhD, V.A. Health Care System, Outpatient Clinical & Psychological Services, Boston MA, the overall needs of veterans and the services that will facilitate their return to civilian life

*Dr. David Ogren, PhD, treatment approaches for soldiers/veterans, Houston, TX

* Ms. Lorraine Beaulieu, LCSW, discuss the ambiguous losses suffered by returning veterans and their family members, NYC

BREAKOUT GROUP: Discussion of what's been said and recommendations for future actions to advocate for Veterans' Needs.

CLOSING REMARKS; led by Larry Winters, therapist, author, poet, and Vietnam vet, New Paltz, N Y